

Canadian Tax Treaties

written by Rory Lodge | April 27, 2020

Through Canada's Economic Action Plan, the federal government is committed to combating international tax evasion and to ensuring tax fairness by implementing the standard developed by the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) for the effective exchange of tax information. In addition to concluding tax treaties, the Government seeks to conclude tax information exchange agreements (TIEAs) with jurisdictions with which Canada does not have a tax treaty.

Download our latest tool and find out which nations Canada is currently negotiating for a tax treaty.