

COVID-19 Medical Screening Form

Here's a template you can use to perform COVID-19 medical screening at your workplace based on the most recent public health guidelines, which have become mandatory in Ontario. The template also includes privacy and human rights safeguards that are necessary in any jurisdiction in which screening is carried out. Caveat: This form is not meant for use at healthcare facilities and other sites where special and more stringent screening requirements apply.