

Termination for age

written by Brittany Taylor | September 15, 2023

We are on Ontario , we have some staff who has been working for us for quit long time, they are now aged above 67, is there a retirement age that i can set on a policy or what would a proper way to let these people go as their health is actually no more fit for labour jobs we have.