

E-Business Toolkit

A new online toolkit helps small businesses learn about technologies that can help increase productivity. The e-Business Toolkit promotes small business involvement in e-commerce. The website providing the Toolkit also offers an assessment for businesses to evaluate how they are already doing with regard to online technology use, as well as success stories of businesses that have used online technology to improve their business.