

Volunteer Participation Policy

Pro Social Programs are organizationally supported by Volunteer Programs that formally connect an organization and its employers for community based programs, issues and initiatives. This template provides a structure for defining your employees participation in a Pro Social Program.