

Garnishments & Maintenance Orders

written by vickyp | September 24, 2014

This information is only a guide to garnishments of wages, maintenance/support orders. We suggests you consult legal counsel if an order is served against an employee.

In most jurisdictions exemption amounts can be prorated if employees are remunerated more frequently than once a month. Also, in some cases, judges have the authority to vary exemption amounts specified under a garnishment or maintenance order.

Listed by jurisdiction: Federal, British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Newfoundland & Labrador, Prince Edward Island, Yukon, Northwest Territories, Nunavut

Federal

Garnishment Amount Follows provincial law for defining amounts exempt from garnishment, however, not bound by provincial law and may set its own exemption levels.
