

Hot Work Policy

This policy was developed to ensure that the Hot Work will be managed and proper procedures are taken to prevent loss due to fire caused by Hot Work (cutting, soldering & welding, explosion or any other activity that involves an open flame). All affected employees and contractors will receive instruction as to the expectations of them to ensure compliance with this policy.