Canadian Immigration 101: Essential Insights For HR Professionals

Recorded Date: March 27, 2025

Speakers: Stephen Green and Evan J. Green, Managing Partners, Green And Spiegel

About This Webinar

Bringing foreign talent into Canada is a valuable strategy for organizations looking to expand their workforce, but HR professionals must navigate the complexities of immigration laws, work permits, and compliance requirements.

This comprehensive webinar will provide a practical overview of:

- The most efficient work permit options for employers.
- Legal responsibilities, compliance obligations, and employer inspections.
- How HR professionals can support foreign employees in transitioning to permanent residency.

Gain actionable insights from immigration law experts Stephen Green and Evan J. Green as they break down the key steps to hiring foreign nationals successfully and in compliance with Canadian immigration laws.

About the Speaker

Evan J. Green

Managing Partner, Green And Spiegel

Evan J. Green is a Senior Partner at Green and Spiegel and a recognized expert in immigration law. With decades of experience, Evan specializes in business immigration, workforce mobility, and regulatory compliance. His in-depth knowledge helps employers and HR professionals manage immigration challenges, from hiring foreign talent to maintaining compliance with shifting policies.

Stephen Green

Managing Partner, Green And Spiegel

Stephen Green is a recognized leader in Canadian immigration law, with decades of experience helping organizations navigate the complexities of hiring international talent. As Senior Managing Partner at Green and Spiegel, Stephen specializes in corporate immigration, compliance, and global mobility solutions for businesses across Canada.

What’s Included

When you attend this webinar, you’ll gain:

1. Expert Insights: Learn from immigration law experts Stephen Green and Evan J. Green on navigating Canadian immigration policies.
2. Key Learning Points:
    1. Understanding work permit options and pathways for hiring foreign talent.
    2. Employer responsibilities for compliance, inspections, and legal obligations.
    3. Steps to assist foreign employees in their permanent residency applications.
3. Practical Tools: Strategies and best practices for simplifying international hiring.
4. Live Q&A Session: Get your most pressing immigration questions answered by legal professionals.
5. Supporting Resources: Access materials from Green and Spiegel to help your organization stay ahead of Canadian immigration regulations.

Who Needs To Be There?

This webinar is ideal for professionals involved in hiring and managing international talent, including:

1. HR Managers & Directors
2. Talent Acquisition Specialists
3. Recruitment Professionals
4. Compliance Officers
5. Business Owners & Executives
6. Legal & Immigration Specialists
7. Workforce Planning Leaders