

Compliance Considerations for a Remote Workplace

This is a webinar from 2021, reflective upon the COVID-19 pandemic and its repercussions, but the principles and strategies mentioned are still applicable for HR directors looking to implement compliant practices for their remote workers.

Recorded Date: May 26, 2021

Time: 9:00 am – 10:30am PDT

Speaker: Michael Cleveland

Recording: To access the recording of this webinar, please go here. As a member of HR Insider, use discount code HRIVIP21 to watch the recording for free on demand. All ancillary material is available as a handout with the recording.

About the Webinar

As we are in the second year of the pandemic, most offices have moved remote. In this webinar, we will look at the considerations and obligations of a remote office.

Michael Cleveland provides employers with practical and timely advice on a wide variety of labour and employment law matters including employment standards, labour relations, human rights, occupational health and safety, privacy, and wrongful dismissals. He acts for employers in the provincial and federal sectors in both unionized and non-unionized workplaces.

Michael summered and articled with Miller Thomson before returning to the firm as an associate. He received his J.D. from the University of Toronto in 2019 and was called to the Ontario Bar in 2020.