Alcohol Consumption at Company Events Policy

written by Rory Lodge | December 23, 2013

1. POLICY STATEMENT

1. TOLICE STATEMENT is committed to limiting the consumption of alcohol by employees and other guests at functions. Possessing, consuming or using alcoholic beverages at functions is acceptable only with prior approval from the Company official in charge of the function. After granting approval, that manager has ultimate responsibility for ensuring that employees and guests comply with the guidelines presented below. In addition, all managers, supervisors, and employees are responsible for complying with Codes of Conduct and HR policies during official functions and may face disciplinary action up to and including termination for violations.
2. PURPOSE
Excessive alcohol consumption may endanger the health and safety of employees, guests, and members of the public and result in inappropriate behaviour that harms's public reputation and standing in the community.
3. SCOPE OF POLICY
Score or FolicyThis Policy applies to all active employees of o functions to which this Policy applies include but are not limited to Company Christmas and holiday parties, receptions for business guests, civic or business organizations, retirement and anniversary parties, Company picnics and outings, and year-end recognition events.
