

Nova Scotia hosted talks among Atlantic province health ministers

Nova Scotia hosted talks among Atlantic province health ministers on collective action to cut health care costs and improve treatment. Agenda items:

- Greater access to generic drugs
- Enhance opioid monitoring
- Pooled procurement of health services and supplies to command lower prices from vendors
- Improve rural health care.