

Office Appearance Policy

[Company Name] establishes this policy on office appearance in accord with its values of efficiency and professionalism. As an expression of those values, all office areas, including employee work areas and common areas, should be kept neat and orderly.