

Paid Sabbatical Leave Policy

written by Rory Lodge | April 16, 2020

[Company Name] understands the significance of having employees who are leaders in their field and endeavors to encourage innovation and creativity in our employees to ensure that [Company Name] remains a leader of cutting-edge products in our industry. It is important that company employees who are responsible for innovation are given time to focus their creative endeavors both personally and professionally so that new ideas can continue to be generated.