

Pay Advances Policy

Any employee in need of a pay advance must submit a request to his or her department head on the [Company Name] standard check request form. If the department head feels the need is justified, he or she may approve the advance not to exceed one week's net pay with repayment terms not to exceed three months. General counsel must approve the repayment terms.