

Sample Workplace Violence Prevention Plan

This document is a sample workplace violence prevention plan provided by Safety Programs.

Components of the plan can be incorporated into your department specific workplace violence prevention plan ensuring the components adopted meet the needs and requirements of your department and violence risk assessment.

This document contains many examples that can be used as guidelines to address specific situations or circumstances identified on your risk assessment. It can be modified by deleting or adding information that is not relevant or is relevant, respectively.