

The Mature Workforce

This whitepaper will discuss the demographic change affecting organizations in every business sector and the characteristics of the 50+ worker that make them a great addition to any company. It will examine their value and skills, explore the myths and false perceptions surrounding the 50+ age group and show you how you can put this experience to work for your organization.