

Understanding HR Policies: Maternity and Parental Leave

Legislated requirements for maternity, parental and adoption leave are aimed at ensuring that parents have access to time-off work in order to, have and care for a new child. It also assures that they can go back to the same job or a comparable position when their leave is over.