

Vacation Leave

written by Rory Lodge | April 27, 2020

Across the country there are many provisions that allow employees to take leave from work. There is vacation and sick leave, personal emergency, bereavement, maternity and parental, family responsibility, compassionate care and reservist leave. Even leaving work for lunch or dinner may be considered 'leave'.

Use this tool to manage employee vacation request and inform your employees of your policies regarding requesting vacation time.