

Work-Sharing Arrangements

The proposed doubling of the maximum length of Work-Sharing arrangements from 38 to 76 weeks has been officially adopted. The Work-Sharing program enables companies to avoid layoffs by giving employees the option to work fewer hours and still receive EI benefits